

Tom Harding
Art & Illustration

Book Illustration

Semi + Podge

At the Siena Palio

Who will ride in Siena's famous horse race?

Jenny Hussein

Illustrated by Tom Harding

WHOSE CAT IS THAT?

ANNE PALMER

Oscar and the LITTLE HARBOUR

ANTHONY GOODE

Trouble

by the Sea

Anne Palmer

illustrations by Tom Harding

Chapter 1

It was the start of the school summer holidays. Gracie and her brother, George, were excited. The family were going on a week's holiday, and taking their young dog, Trouble, with them.

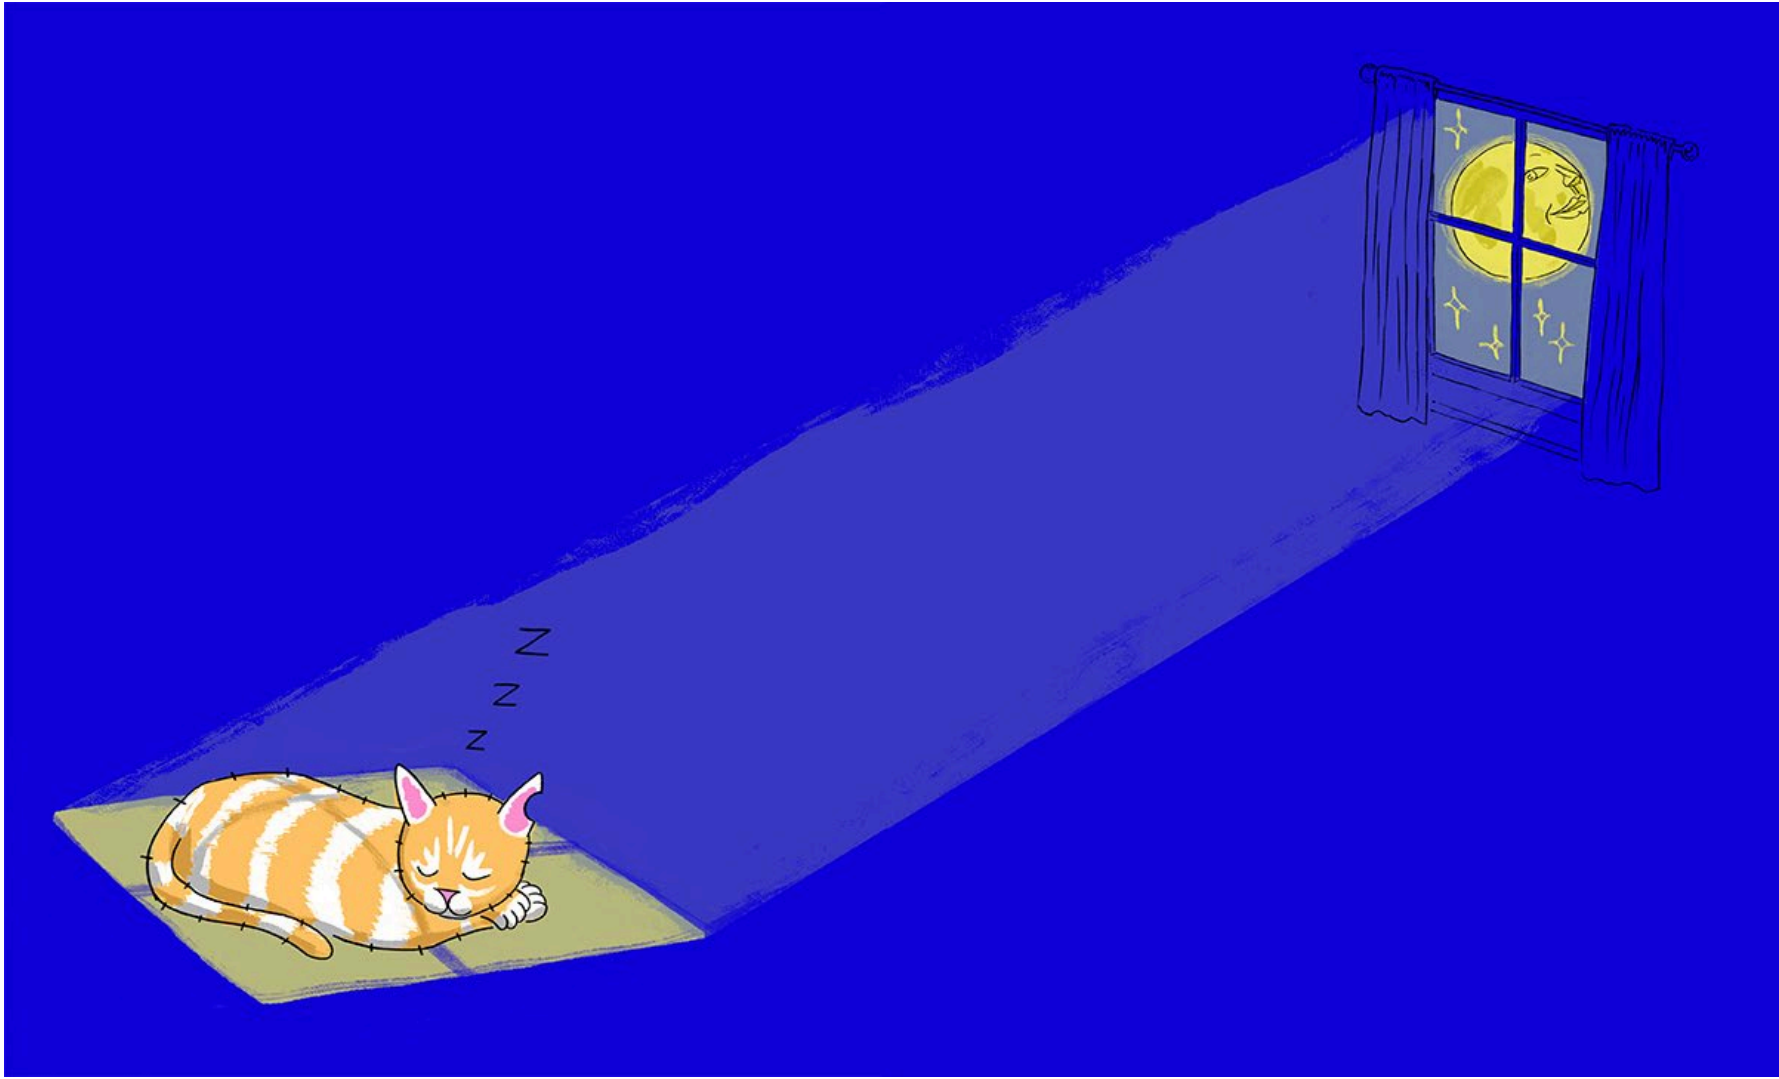

'Can't wait to take her for a paddle,' laughed Gracie.

Although she was a much loved dog, she was also a very naughty one, hence her name - Trouble.

Only recently, she'd knocked over next door's statue after a brief visit to their garden. Now it was a headless man!

Then he jumped onto a chair and settled on a cushion without a care.

It was Holly's bedtime so she said goodnight, hoping he'd sleep all through the night.

And sure enough she didn't hear a sound.
Pancake was fun, she liked having him around.

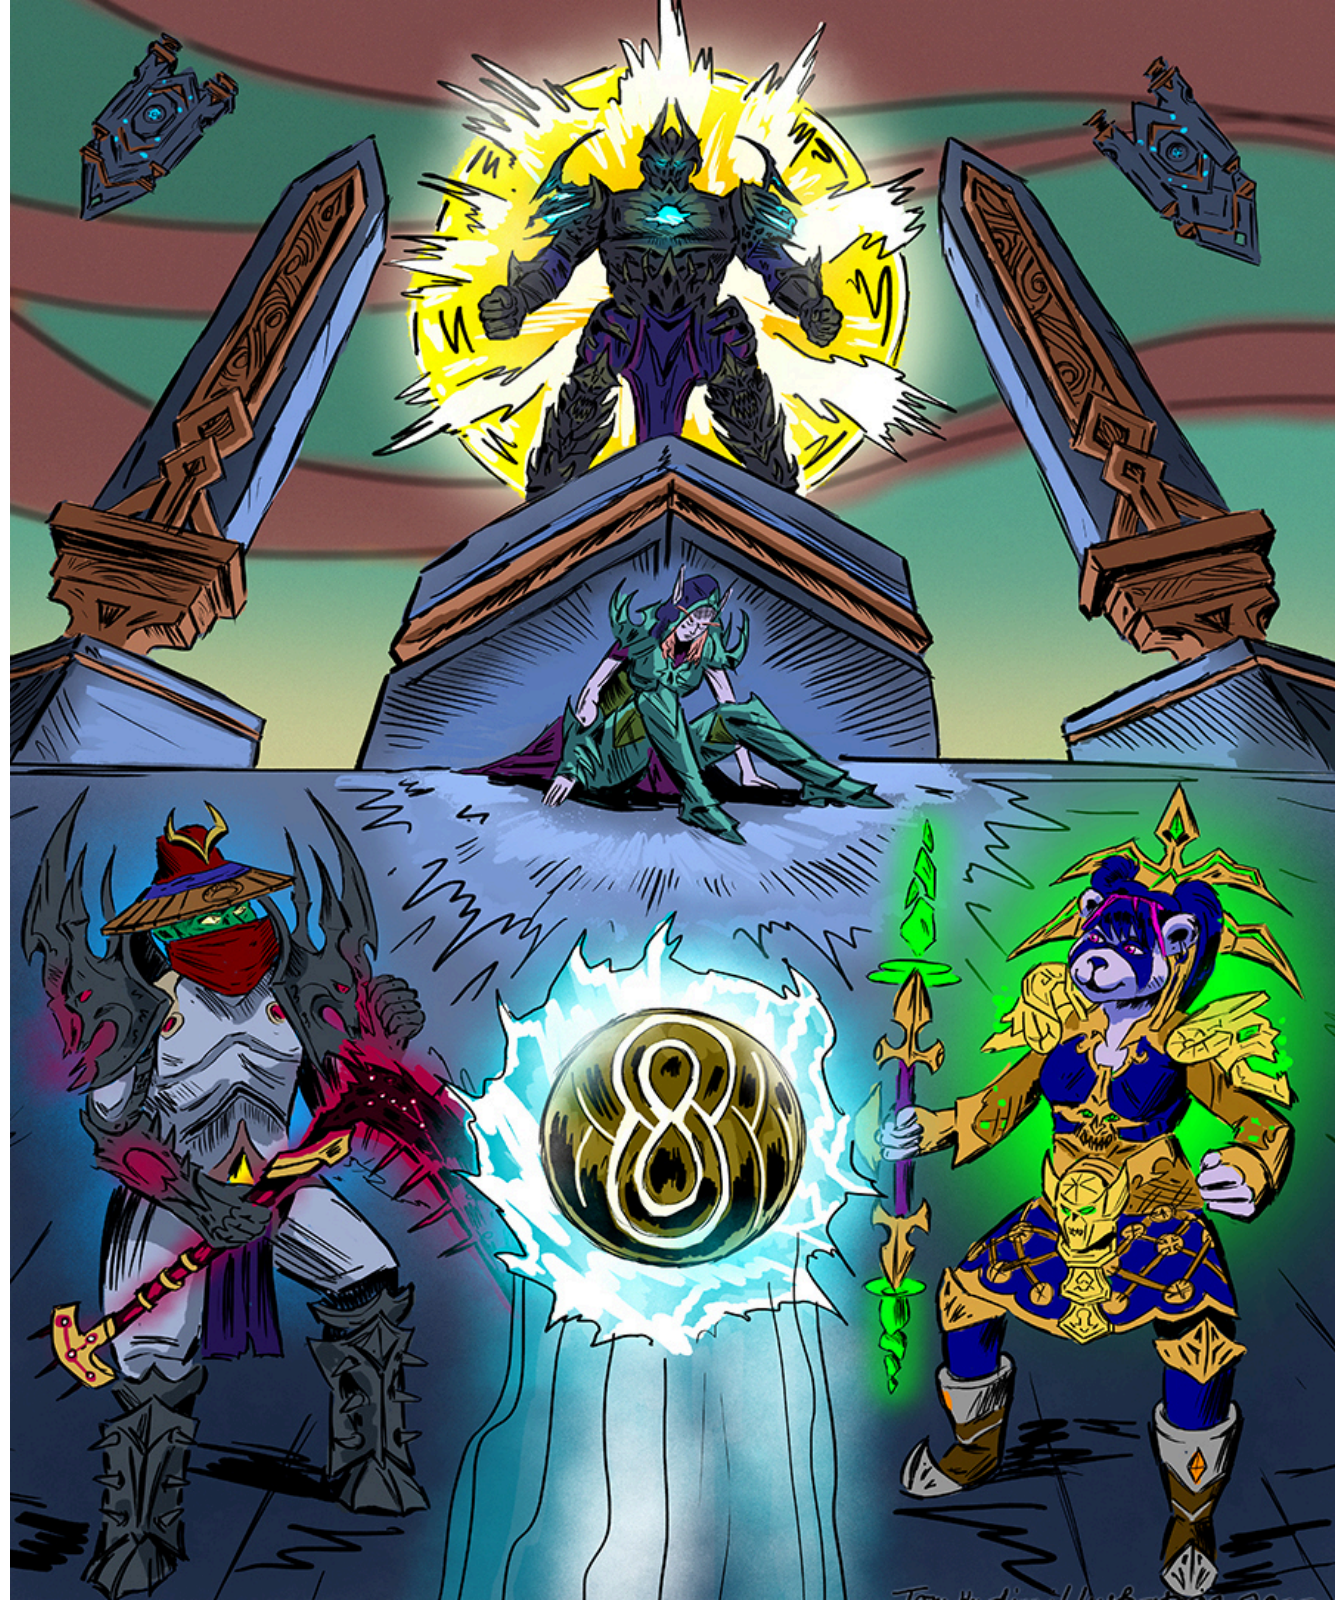

But the best thing was, and she knew,
Pancake was her cat and that would do!

More Illustration Projects

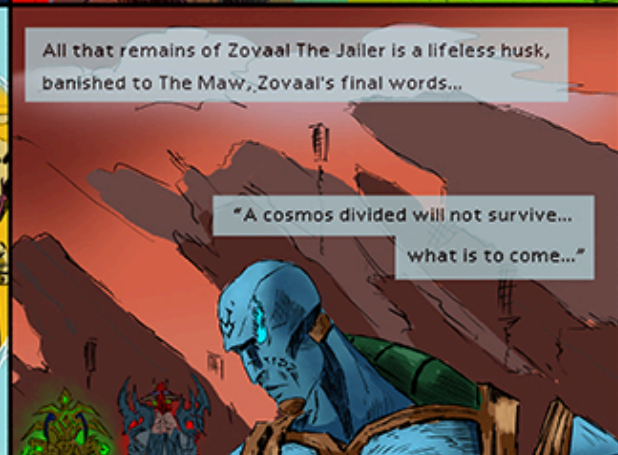

In The Sepulcher of the First Ones Cosmo and Lulan face The Jailer, Zovaal in a final confrontation

Zovaal is bested...

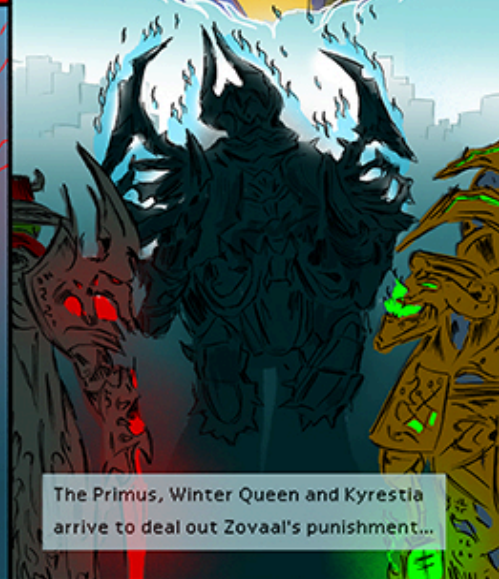

Lulan and Cosmo look upon their vanquished foe

All that remains of Zovaal The Jailer is a lifeless husk, banished to The Maw, Zovaal's final words...

"A cosmos divided will not survive... what is to come..."

The Primus, Winter Queen and Kyrestia arrive to deal out Zovaal's punishment...

TOMARLING 2022

Experiment & Other Illustrative works

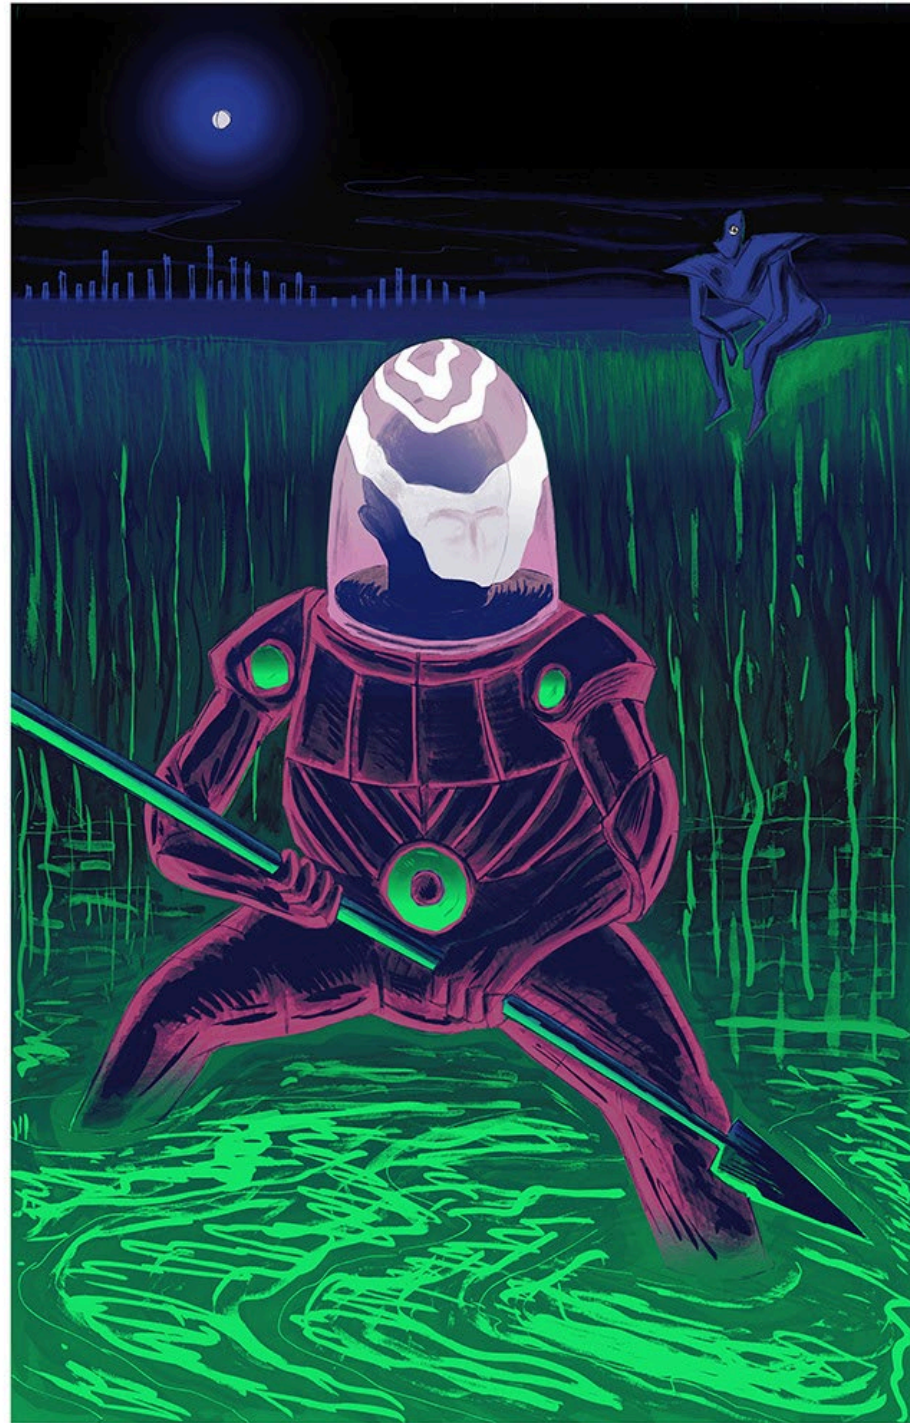

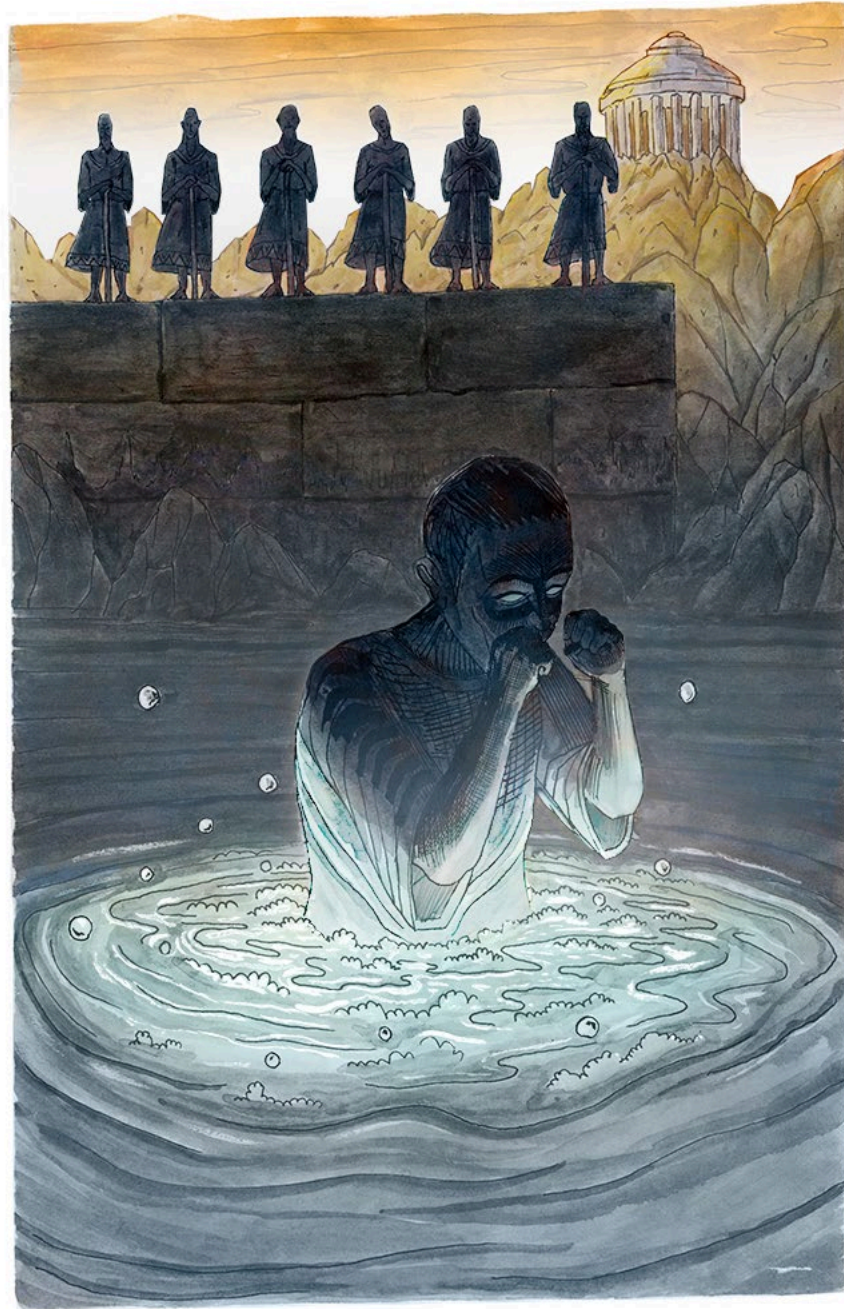

WORLD OF STORIES

www.tomhardingillustration.co.uk

tom@tomhardingillustration.co.uk